

Neverland

Ross Copperman

You're beautiful
You walk alone
You take the words from everyone
But you turn his that you can't turn to
Yeah, you can tell the word apart
You could make this on your stars
If you could face the girl that you've become
You keep me cause you don't know what you want
But I can't just play alone

What you want
What you need
Is right here in your hand
My thought on to hold you back
Tonight
You go so high
You Neverland

You're hands are wide
You hold it out
You think it's coming after rail
I think you holding out for nothing
I still believe in what you don't
I see the you,
Did you just want?
You're like a bird, your wings tide to the ground
I keep pretending you will come around
But not pretending now

What you want
What you need
Is right here in your hand
My thought one to hold you back
Tonight
You go so high
You Neverland
Yeah...
Yeah you Neverland, oh

What you want
What you need
Is right here in your hand
My thought one to hold you back
Tonight
You go so high
You Neverland

Go so high
You Neverland
