

The One

Ross Copperman

When the blue sky turns to gray when you feel like runnin' away you've have more than you can take and your heart is bleeding When you're just a little short on hope I'll be at the end of your road I'll save you with one little love note when you read it

I wanna be the one that calms you down be the one when your world turns inside out wanna be the one when the sun goes down wanna be the one
wanna be the one
wanna be the one holding your hand wanna give you everything I can wanna hear you say the words I am
wanna be the one
I wanna be the one

Wanna make you promises I keep unlock my heart and loose the key just tell me what it is you need there is nothing I wouldn't do

I wanna be the one that calms you down
be the one when your world turns inside out
wanna be the one when the sun goes down
wanna be the one
wanna be the one
wanna be the one holding your hand
wanna give you everything I can
wanna be the one
I wanna be the one
(2x)

Yeah, When the blue sky turns to gray when you feel like runnin' away then you have more than you can take
