

A Billion Hits

Ross Lynch

Didn't go nowhere, never left, uh
You really thought that I was gone, gone, gone, gone
I heard you talking like I lost my swagger
Said I was over you were wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong
I'm always improving
Always on the move and
Working on my flow
To take it to the studio
This is not a comeback
Following my own path
Laying down the fat tracks
Still a music maniac
Whoa, well I know that I'll make it
Never put my head down
T-t-turn it up loud
Yeah, 'cause I don't have to fake it
If I keep on working it
A billion hits is what I'll get
Whoa-o-o-o-o
That's what I'm gonna get
Whoa-o-o-o-o
That's what I'm gonna get
Yeah, 'cause I know that I'll make it
Overload the internet
A billion hits is what I'll get,
A billion hits is what I'll get
Now you can't breathe
Why so quiet
No you don't believe your eyes, eyes, eyes, eyes
You pushed me 'til I had to start this riot
Now I'll never be denied-nied-nied-nied
I'm always improving
Always on the move and
Working on my flow
'Til you hear me on the radio
I know I can be a star
Take off like a rocket car
Every day I'm working hard

To get my name on every chart
Whoa, well I know that I'll make it
Never put my head down
T-t-turn it up loud
Yeah, 'cause I don't have to fake it
If I keep on working it
A billion hits is what I'll get
Whoa-o-o-o-o
That's what I'm gonna get
Whoa-o-o-o-o
Yeah, 'cause I know that I'll make it
Call someone
I think this is an emergency, hey!
Pull the plug, Austin's blowing up my PC
Every hour, day and night

Can't get this rocker out my site, site, site, site
Can't get me outta your site
You can't get me outta your site
You thought that I was gone
Guess that you were wrong
Cause I just wrote your new favorite song
T-t-turn it up loud
Yeah, 'cause I don't have to fake it
If I keep on working it
Whoa-o-o-o-o
That's what I'm gonna get
Whoa-o-o-o-o
That's what I'm gonna get
A billion hits is what I'll get,
A billion hits is what I'll get
