

Chasin' The Beat Of My Heart

Ross Lynch

Chasin' the beat of my heart
Been counting every second of the day
I'm dying to be seeing your face
Wishing you were at the door
Can't take another minute more

Some way and somehow
I'm through anticipating, oh
Right here and right now, it's true
Instead of waiting, oh

I'm going home and I'm coming to you
Chasin' the beat of my heart
Heading for all that I knew
Chasin' the beat of my heart
Oh woah, you and I
Oh woah, together again
Oh woah, you and I
Chasin' the beat of my heart

No matter what I've done or where I've gone
You still have been where I belong
Been livin' in a merging sea
Because you haven't been here with me

Some way and somehow
I'm through anticipating, oh
Right here and right now, it's true
Instead of waiting, oh

I'm going home and I'm coming to you
Chasin' the beat of my heart
Heading for all that I knew
Chasin' the beat of my heart
Oh woah, you and I
Oh woah, together again
Oh woah, you and I
Chasin' the beat of my heart

So you can you hear it, c-can you hear it?
It's beating out of me, oh, oh, oh
Can you hear it, hey, hey can you hear it?
It's where I wanna be, oh

I'm going home and I'm coming to you (to you)
Chasin' the beat of my heart
Heading for all that I knew
Chasin' the beat of my heart

I'm following you and you lead
Chasin' the beat of my heart
Heading for all that I need
Chasin' the beat of my heart

Oh woah, you and I, together again
Oh woah, you and I
Chasin' the beat of my heart
