

No Ordinary Day

Ross Lynch

Walked up to you
It was a gray December Monday
Asked for directions on the street
Do you remember
It was cold and it was raining?
But it felt like summertime to me

'Cause when you opened up your mouth
It was like sunshine coming out

You changed the world outside my window
Right there, you blew my heart away
And I remember when I met you
Thinking that you were not an ordinary girl
This wasn't gonna be no ordinary day

Yeah
Ordinary day
No, oh
No ordinary day
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
No ordinary day
Oh yeah
No ordinary day
