

Beneath The Stars

Rotersand

The sky is clearing up again
The storm is through
The rain has disappeared again
Now me and you
Embrace beneath the stars
Believe in things to last
I'm listening to my heart again

Here, here I go again
Loving what I'm living for
It suddenly began
Because of you

The gods had cast their frozen dice
How could I know
Someone would come to melt the ice
Now me and you
Embrace beneath the stars
Believe in things to last
I'm listening to my heart again

Here, here I go again
Loving what I'm living for
It suddenly began
Because of you
