

If You Don't Stop It

Rotersand

If you don't stop it
They won't stop it

Now you, now me
No more our thoughts are free
What's left for us to see
Is dark stars and memories
Now you, now me
Now we got to disagree

You better join us
You better raise your voice
If you don't join
You drift away
