

Lifelight

Rotersand

Come to my voices
Reach for my hand
Too many choices
Don't know where to land

No time for a breakdown
No time for remorse
Turn on your lifelight
Lead me out of the storm

There are times when seas are too deep
I feel I'm lost - no wind will bring my name to you
There are times I'm raging with fear
A spell that keeps me floundering in the nameless blue
