

Lost

Rotersand

You know me, you trust me, you love me, it's all in your eyes
You stir me, you tempt me, you want me to drown in your sighs
But you're a liar, a liar
You're just a liar, a liar

You fool me, you scorn me, you flout me, you're rolling the dice
You trick me, you knock me, you jilt me like just a device
Cause you're a liar, a liar
You're just a liar, a liar

Love is lost, lost in all those moments
Cruelly denied with everytime you lied
Love is lost, it's just a dying romance
It was never meant ever to survive

Love is lost, a dream is left to perish
A tale that burns in the light of truth
Love is lost, the love we used to cherish
Love is lost, a kingdom gone for good
