

Meaning Is The Drug

Rotersand

Feeling the quest for an answer
One spark will set your spirit alight
Like music is driving the dancer
It calls on your forces inside

An image your mind can decipher
A word that your own perception has told
A notion to live or to die for
A vision you dare to behold

A tiny line dividing friend and enemy
Don't you know that meaning is the drug
A force divine to make our minds one family
Don't you know that meaning is the drug
