Without thoughts you rise your fist That gets me really pissed One black man, twenty white men Beat him just for being black

What if you wake up...
Tomorrow being black?
Are you gonna kill yourself?
Or change your policy?

You got to be bold, that's what you have been told! Everything you do as your leader tells If you don't beat, you will get beat When you beat, it grows lots of hate

What if you wake up...
Tomorrow being black?
Are you gonna kill yourself?
Or change the racial policy?
