

Dust To Sand

Rough Silk

I've lost and loved screamed and cried
i've seen the devil's face and on the other side i've seen the rainbow i've seen your smile i've seen the mountains high and I've tried to keep my style someday we'll find - someday we'll know someday the blind will see to show someday we'll fight someday we'll pray someday

all the dreams - all the tears all my lies and all my fears all the blood - all the pain all the friends I've lost in vain all the love - all the hate all the trust and all the fate and when someday I'll reach the end lust to ashes - dust to sand

i've seen the rise
i've seen the fall
i've seen 'em up again and higher after fall
i've been the trigger i've been a fool
i've been the last to know and I've been a tool someday we'll find....
