

Breathe

Roxette

I've gotta come down
I've been awake for far too long
My eyes look torn
They were so strong
I wore the crown
I wrote the song
Now it's fadin'
My heart was open
Like a window to a summer breeze

I breathed ( breathe) your love
I filled my lungs and veins
And I breathed ( breathe) your love
Until I felt the pain
And like rain (breathe) it slipped away

I tried to find out
What love was really all about
Behind the curtain waits the sky
It's rare I feel enough to cry
I'm crying up inside
My life was open
Like a window to a summer breeze

I breathed (breathe) I breathed your love
I filled my lungs and veins
And I breathed (breathe) I breathed your love
Until I met the pain and like rain (breathe) it slipped away
Just like a little rain

I breathed (breathe) I breathed your love
And nothing stayed the same
Yes, I breathed (breathe) I breathed your love
And filled my heart in vain
Cos like rain (breathe) it slipped away, oh yeah
Just like rain it swept away

Breathe your love, I breathed your love
And nothing stayed the same
Breathe your love, I breathed your love
Just like a little rain it slipped away
Oh I breathed
