

June Afternoon

Roxette

Didn't I tell you everything is possible in this deja-vu?
Try the river boat, the carousel, feed the pigeons, Bar-B-Q.

Look at all the people, happy faces all around.
Smiling, throwing kisses, busy making lazy sounds

R: It's a bright June afternoon, it never gets dark. Wah-wah!
Here comes the sun.
Get your green, green tambourine, let's play in the park. Wah-hwah! Here comes the sun

Some folks are on blankets, slowly daydreaming and reaching for their food.
Let's go buy an ice-cream and a magazine with an attitude

And put on a cassette, we can pretend that you're a star
'cos life's so very simple just like la-la-la