

Me & You & Terry & Julie

Roxette

Terry is an old teacher
He's reading the paper in the church
Julie used to be famous
Portraying the bright-eyed Mother Earth

But how about you?
Do you want a love that lasts forever?
But how about you?
Do you want to spend the night together?

With someone so blue
That she doesn't know what to do
Loves a big hole in her shoe
That's the truth
How about you?

Terry's folding the paper
And yawns at a headline, cocky and crude
Julie thinks he's a charmer
Cause hes got the proper attitude

But how about you?
Do you want a love that lasts forever?
But how about you?
Do you want to spend the night together
With someone so blue?
That she doesn't know what to do
Loves a big stone in her shoe that's the truth
How about you

Whooo yeah
Whooo yeah
But how about you?
Dont you want a love that lasts forever?
Do you want to spend the night together
With someone so blue?
That she doesn't know what to do
Loves a big thorn in her shoe that's the truth
How about you?
