See Me

Ooh, ooh With the moon and the sun in his eyes He's arriving And I don't know what I'd do without him I got life suddenly See, see me I've got nothing to hide See me I've got nothing to hide See me I'm leaving my heart in the palm of his hand So gently I know he knows that I love him Though I've never said, is there an easy way? See, see me I've got nothing to hide See me I've got nothing to hide See me Coming home I'm coming home It feels like I'm coming home Coming home I'm coming home See, see me I've got nothing to hide See me I've got nothing to hide See, see me
