

Some Other Summer

Roxette

You locked the door
Don't know why
You had to keep
It all inside
Just had to smell
That sweet perfume
And watch the stars
The soul, the room

Some other summer
Some other summer
You will do better

Some other sunshine
Some other shoreline
You will do better

You locked the door
Don't know why
You had to keep
It all inside
Just had to smell
That sweet perfume
And watch the stars
The soul, the room

Some other summer
Some other summer
You will do better

Oh the crash will make you strong
Some other sunshine
Some other shoreline
You will do better
Oh the burnin

You locked the door
Don't know why
You had to keep
It all inside
Just had to smell
That sweet perfume
And watch the stars, the soul, the room

Some other summer
Some other summer
You will do better
Oh the crash will make you strong
Some other sunshine
Some other shoreline
You will do better
Oh the burnin
