Touched by the Hand of God

Roxette

See at eight o'clock I took the dog for a walk in the morning I never really liked him but let's keep that between you and me I ran into this woman at a crowded café There's nothing else to say, she took my breath away She said: I'm Prudence, I just came out to play outta charm sch ool How on earth could it be? I'm touched by the hand of God Really hard to believe Hey, I'm touched by the hand of God She's got a mind set on me Yeah, I'm blessed with the power of love The power of love, yeah! Heaven in her smile, I took a break for a while with good reaso n Drowning in her eyes, I was mesmerized, I'm buried and gone I guess my kind of talking was misplaced like hell Just like the funky (Art Garfunkel[?]) Hey, sweet Prudence, you're doing so well outta charm school How on earth could it be? I'm touched by the hand of God Really hard to believe Don't you know I'm touched by the hand of God She's got a mind set on me Yeah, I'm blessed with the power of love The power of love, yeah! She said she had a '57 Chevrolet There's nothing more to say, she took my breath away Hey, sweet Prudence, won't you come out to play outta charm sch ool?
