

You Make It Sound So Simple

Roxette

The world looks complicated
The iniverse so frustrated
I wish I was blind
Just for a moment

I'm having a hard time sleeping
I'm fighting some far out visions
Images in my mind
I'm saying my prayers

But you make it sound so simple so simple
You make it sound so simple so simple

You make it simple like 1-2-3
You make it simple like a-b-c
You make it simple, there's a you and me
You make it simple, there's a you and me

You make it simple, I know how to breathe
You make it simple, I know how to read
You make it simple, there's a you and me
You make it simple, there's a you and me

The world sinks in corruption
I'm waiting for an interruption
Is it all in my head?
It's getting confusing

The sun has a hard time rising
Fighting some far out visions
The living, the dead
I'm saying my prayers

But you make it sound so simple so simple
You make it sound so simple so simple

You make it simple like 1-2-3
You make it simple like a-b-c
You make it simple, there's a you and me
You make it simple, there's a you and me

You make it simple, I know how to breathe
You make it simple, I know how to read
You make it simple, there's a you and me
You make it simple, there's a you and me
