

Chance Meeting

Roxy Music

I never thought I'd see you again
Where have you been until now?
Well how are you how have you been
It's a long time since we last met
It seems like only yesterday when I first Saw you in your red dress smile
How could I forget that day
I know that time spent well is so rare
Would You Believe?
Would you believe in what I do
When the things that I make are all for you?
And in a while I'll come to you
Showing showing why what I think will all come true
Well I'm sure I'll love you all my life
And in the morning too
Everything you have is out of sight
But baby I can see right through you
