

Just Another High

Roxy Music

Maybe your heart is aching
I wouldn't know, now would I?
Maybe your spirit's breaking up
I shouldn't care, now should I?

Maybe you're thinking of me
Well, I don't know, now do I?
If only you knew how I feel
Wish I could die, now don't I?

I'm just another crazy guy
Playing at love was another high
Just another high

Couldn't believe in my eyes
You drifted into my life
But marriages, made in Heaven
Can they survive in this life?

Surely it came as no surprise
Love was too hot to handle
Well, I really blew my cool and you
You just blew out the candle

Didn't you just try just another high?
Didn't you sigh as you waved goodbye?
Just another high

I'm just another crazy guy
Playing with love was another high
Such a crazy high

Lately it seems so empty here
But I suppose, I'm alright
Maybe tomorrow's not so clear
Still I remember that night

Singing to you like this is
My only way to reach you
And though I'm too proud to say it
Oh, how I long too see you

Shattered by dreams, by your goodbye
Scattered my hopes and filled the sky
Desolate am I

I'm just another crazy guy
Playing at love was another high
Just another high

Just another high
Just another high
Just another high
Just another high

Just another high
Such a crazy high

Just another high
Just another high

Maybe I should start anew
(Just another high)
And maybe I should find someone who
(Just another high)
Will maybe love me like I love you

(Just another high)
Maybe I'm too stuck on you
(Just another high)
Maybe I got stuck on you
(Just another high)
