

Goodbye My Love (I Heard A Silver Trumpet)

Roy Acuff

Goodbye, my love, it's time to go I heard a silver trumpet blow
It's calling me to fight the foe and so goodbye, my love
The world is ours to wander free 'neath Heaven up above
Goodbye, my love, it's time to go
Goodbye, my love, now don't you cry, we'll be together by and b y
We'll keep ol' glory waving high and so don't cry my love
No matter where on earth I'd go, it's you, I'm thinking of Goodbye, my love, it's time to go
