

All Ireland

Roy Harper

intro: Em //// Bm//

Em

Goodbye free Ireland

Try again soon

The tommies and sirens

Are wolves in the moon

Devouring your children

With the law's empty spoon

Bm

They've no time for talking

Em

Who are calling the tune

Your spirit is proven

There's no need to die

For nationalist slogan

Or Religious lie

They've both lived too long

And they should be long gone

Bm

And there'll not be a new song

Em

Until it's been done...
