Lalalala...

An old man on his death bed whispered to me "you are the master of your destiny"

A diamond is a diamond a stone a stone but a man's not all good nor all bad

Call them as you see them you'll stand alone You're the best friend that you ever had oh yeah you're the best friend that you ever had

So laugh when it's time to laugh, cry when it's time to cry, li ve while it's time to live you'll die when it's time to die Lalalalala...

Then he closed his eyes and left me alone, my old friend's deat h brought his wisdom home

A diamond is a diamond a stone a stone but a man's not all good nor all bad

Call them as you see them you'll stand alone, you're the best f riend that you ever had oh yeah $\,$

You're the best friend that you ever had

So laugh when it's time to laugh cry when it's time to cry Live while it's time to live you'll die when it's time to die Lalalalala...
