

Raindrops

Roy Orbison

Raindrops, Raindrops
I look out my window and what do I see Raindrops, Raindrops
they mark the pathway to my destiny
Raindrops, Raindrops
Yes rain like the tears that fell from my heart the day you said we'd have to part and now what's left for me to do but watch those raindrops and cry over you

You've stolen my love and my heart away
Raindrops, Raindrops
And I'll feel the same for the rest of my days
Raindrops, Raindrops
Well I've tried yes I've tried I want you to know I did what you asked I loved you so but I knew in my heart it wouldn't be long till I'd look up and you'd be gone
