

Brave

Royal Bliss

I pledge allegiance to the price my father paid
And I pledge allegiance to the sacrifice they made
Cause we'll never have to see...I see them fall
You complain here while they bleed
Well I believe that

Without the colors (Whoa Ohh)
You wouldn't be so brave
Without the cost of freedom (Whoa Ohh)
You couldn't be so brave

Where was the white
When we split in red and blue
Well you shut your mouths and you closed your eyes
When we all needed you
But the good comes with the bad
I see it comin'...see them comin' back
And I'm not leavin'

Without the colors (Whoa Ohh)
You wouldn't be so brave
Without the cost of freedom (Whoa Ohh)
You couldn't be so brave
I know the difference is
I wouldn't be so brave
Without the differences
I couldn't be so brave!

And now I know
Without Their lives
The precious things without their cars, the diamond rings
Without these drugs that make us sick
Without the fucked up politics!

It would not be the same
If you cant see...I hope you find your place
Cause I'm not leavin'

Without the colors (Whoa Ohh)
You wouldn't be so brave
Without the cost of freedom (Whoa Ohh)
You couldn't be so brave
I know the difference is
I wouldn't be so brave
Without the differences
I couldn't be so brave
I wouldn't be so brave

I couldn't be so brave
I wouldn't be so brave

We wouldn't be so brave
