

A picture on a phone, the only way that I see my home.
All the times that I missed, all the times I'll never know.
And you don't understand it, how can I explain?
You're runnin' round in circles, calling out my name,
Oh, I wish you knew, that if I could I'd stay.

Yeah, I'm crazy, for you baby, can't you see?
And I'm wondering, if you're crazy, just like me. (just like me

Standing on the corner of a street without a name I've seen.
And tonight I sleep alone, it's just the covers that surround me.
And you don't understand it, how can I explain?
You're runnin' round in circles, calling out my name,
Oh, I wish you knew, that if I could I'd stay.

Yeah, I'm crazy, for you baby, can't you see?
And I'm wondering, if you're crazy, just like me. (just like me
Yeah, I'm crazy, for you baby, yeah, I lost my mind, why can't you see?
And I'm wondering, if you're crazy just like me.

Yeah, yeah,
And I wonder if you notice, all the days I'm not around,
Well I'll make it up someday, someday, somehow.

Yeah, I'm crazy, for you baby, can't you see?
And I'm wondering, if you're crazy, just like me, (just like me
Yeah, I'm crazy, for you baby,
Yeah, I lost my mind, why can't you see?
And I'm wondering, if you're crazy just like me. (just like me)

Yeah, yeah, yeah.

Yeah I'm crazy, for you baby, can't you see?
And I'm wondering if you're crazy just like me.
