

Fancy Things

Royal Bliss

You grow old living in your own fairy tale.
You'll never know if you were a bitch or a queen.
And I can't save you now, save you from yourself.
How do you feel when you're all by yourself?

All those fancy things, do they keep you warm at night?
Do they hold you when you cry in the dark?

Would you be lost without your diamond cage?
And are you scared they wouldn't know your name?
Oh, but I know one thing that you will never tell.
A beautiful lie you'll give to no one else.

Now all those fancy things, do they keep you warm at night?
Do they hold you when you cry in the dark?
In the dark.
And all those lies you tell, do they make you feel alive?
Do they make you wanna die?
I wanna know. I wanna know.

These things. Is it what you wanted?
You'll never say "Take that away".
Oh all your dreams, is this what you wanted?
I can't believe you'll never say.
You'll never say.
You'll never say.
You'll never say.

All those fancy things, do they keep you warm at night?
Do they hold you when you cry in the dark?
All those lies you tell, do they make you feel alive?
Do they make you wanna die? I wanna know.
I wanna know.
Yeah all those fancy things, do they keep you warm at night?
Do they hold you when you cry in the dark? In the dark.

All those fancy things
Is it what you wanted?
I wanna know. I wanna know.
All those lies you tell
Is it what you wanted?
I wanna know

All those fancy things, do they keep you warm at night?
Do they hold you when you cry in the dark?
All those lies you tell, do they make you feel alive?
Do they make you wanna die? I wanna know.
