

Pocket Of Dreams

Royal Bliss

Standing on a pocket of dreams
Waiting for the colors to bleed
How are you feeling?
You don't look so good
Waiting there for everyone
To come back and have a little fun
You wait and you wait here
But they never come
Yeah, you wait and you wait here
But they never come

When you can't be feeling like you always should
You know everything is not always good

Standing on a pocket of change
Wait until you're proud to say
"Everything is gonna be all right"
I didn't mean to be so mean
I only tell you what I see
I'm never lying
'Cause it don't do no good

When you can't be feeling like you always should
You know everything is not always good

Hey there, bright shadow
All your dreams will come true
Hey there, bright shadow
All your dreams will come true
They always do
They always do

Standing on a pocket of dreams
Waiting for the colors to bleed
How are you feeling?
You don't look so good

When you can't be feeling like you always should
You know everything is not always good
When you can't be feeling like you always should
You know everything is not always good

Hey there, bright shadow
All your dreams will come true
Hey there, bright shadow
All your dreams will come true
Hey there, bright shadow
All your dreams will come true
(They always do)
Hey there, bright shadow
All your dreams will come true
(They always do)
Hey there, bright shadow
All your dreams will come true
