

Second Try

Royal Bliss

What have I done almost took my life
And now I'm left with one more regret and everything they put inside
And I'll try to run but it'll never be the same
I tried to be the man and now I've got to explain

I guess its my second try
Are you still waiting for me to decide

So the time has come to make up my mind
Or spend my days just wasting away thinking about my life
I'll try to fight but it'll never be the same
And now I'm left with another scar..a new story to explain

I guess its my second try
Are you still waiting for me to decide
And I know its my only right
To be waiting for me to decide

Why be the one

Why be the one that throws it all away
Why put a hole in your only wall
Sit around and let the others fall

And I can't stop thinking
Oh I know this might be my last escape

Well I guess its my second try
Are you still waiting for me to decide
And I know its my only right
To be waiting for me decide

Why be the one that throws it all away
Why put a hole in your only wall
Sit around and let the others fall
