

My Sweet Rosie..I'm feeling so alone
Can you help me one night more

Looking back I just didn't know how to relax
It was killing me all the time..time the evil one
When she took my hand I couldn't see what she was doing
I've always been so blind,but I am only man

My Sweet Rosie I'm feeling so alone
Can you help me one night more

I tried not to collapse
Oh I knew that it would be it
It would be the ending day
If you were to ever hear..
So I turned to run..I could not I was frozen
Frozen in my steps..never to run again

My Sweet Rosie I'm feeling so alone
Can you help me one night more
My Sweet Rosie I'm feeling so alone
Why can't you help me one night more

I want you back I just needed time to relax
Cause I couldn't leave it alone..I lost all of my control
Don't you feel the same...I need you to now to know
That I cant leave it alone,that I cant leave it alone

My Sweet Rosie I'm feeling so alone
Can you help me one night more
My Sweet Rosie I'm feeling so alone
Why cant you help me one night more
