

She's Creeping

Royal Blood

She's creeping
Into my bloodstream
Then crawling
Out dead as a battery
Then it sinks in
I'm not where I'm supposed to be
It's so boring
Being what you want me to be

Cause I've stopped listening
I'm just waiting for an answer to a question that I already know
I'll let you down
Words are so cheap
But lately I've been feeling like I'm always living in your shadow
When you're not around

So don't miss what
Makes you so miserable
Did my message send?
God knows I'll send it again

Cause I've stopped listening
I'm just waiting for an answer to a question that I already know
I'll let you down
Words are so cheap
But lately I've been feeling like I'm always living in your shadow
When you're not around
You're not around

Cause I've stopped listening
I'm just waiting for an answer to a question that I already know
I'll let you down
Words are so cheap
But lately I've been feeling like I'm always living in your shadow
When you're not around

Yeah she's creeping
Into my bloodstream
Yeah she's creeping
Into my bloodstream
She's creeping
Now you're not around

You're not around
