

You Can Be So Cruel

Royal Blood

I'm outside your window, I'm outside your door,
You've never been this lonely
Well I've never been this down before and it shows
Killing me so gently, hands right round my throat
Choking me so slowly, slashing every words down to the bone

Cause you can be so cruel
And that's all I've ever known
Cruel, cruel world

Look inside your window, look outside your door
Wake you when you're sleeping
Cause I've never been this down before and it shows
No I've never been this down before

Cause you can be so cruel
And that's all I've ever known
Cruel, cruel world
Yeah, you can be so cruel
And that's all you've ever done
Cruel, cruel world
Cruel, cruel world
Cruel, cruel world

Cruel, cruel world
Cruel
