

One Eyed Cat

Royal Crown Revue

You're a one eyed cat, and I know just where you go
Out the back with those deadbeat pals you know
I bet ya's out hanging there by the light of the moon
Licking from a dirty dish and filling your spoon

Cause you're a one eyed cat with a big grin on your face
Yowling and scratching when someone's on your case
Ya nasty little devil don't you know you're going to push too f ar
Your nine lives sipped away at the corner bar

You're a bad kitty
