

You Ain't Nobody ('Til Somebody Hates You)

Royal Republic

I've got to get this out my chest
Don't wanna be like all the rest
Is it true what they say? What they do?
I'm gonna put it to the test

You know they love it when you break
And they will live for your mistakes
They make the rules for the wise and the fools
But you're nothing but a fake

You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody 'til somebody hates you
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody 'til somebody hates you

I've got to get this out my chest
Don't wanna be like all the rest
Is it true what they say? What they do?
I'm gonna put it to the test

You've got to get this in your head
It doesn't matter what you say, what you said
'Cause you know they like you better when you're dead

You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody 'til somebody hates you
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody 'til somebody hates you

You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody 'til somebody hates you
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody 'til somebody hates you

You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody 'til somebody hates you
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody
You ain't nobody 'til somebody hates you
