

When you're knocked down to the bottom
And you feel like you're still falling
And you're wondering when the brighter day's coming
You've been lost

They keep playing that old sad song on the radio
And you feel like they're telling your story
You're like a ship that's floating in the dark

And the fog's so thick
You can hardly see the stars anymore
And you're looking for a way
You're looking for a way home

Hope, He'll light the way
You'll find your way to Hope, hope, everybody's looking for
They're searching for a place
To put their hope, hope

This life is a struggle
And you're so far 'cause you've been running
And you put trust in all of the wrong things
High class, you've got everything
It won't last, you'll be empty 'cause

True love's not marked with a price tag
No, you can't buy that
You're like a ship that's floating in the dark

And the fog so thick
You can hardly see the stars anymore
And you're looking for a way
You're looking for a way home

I can see it in your eyes
You've been looking for a better life
But you don't where to find it

Well, get ready, I can see the rising sun
And your change is 'bout to come
Yeah, your change is coming
