

Run To Love

Royal Tailor

You hide secrets in your sleeves
You hope that no one else will ever see
The truth is everyone has scars

It doesn't matter who you are
Heartbreak's got you on the move
Tell me, where's it taking you?

Run, run, run to love
Run to love
'Cause love, love waits for us
Waits for us with open arms
Run to love

Always trying to impress your friends
Intoxicated by adrenaline
You're racing down a dead end road

We all know how that story goes
You live like there's nothing left to lose
What if that isn't true?

Come closer now
And hear the sound
Love's calling out
