

A Good Enough Day

Royal Wood

It's a good enough day to love
It's a good enough day to love
If not today, then when I say
It's a good enough day to love

Though the sun may not be bright
The sun may not be bright
If we look inside our soul there's light
It's a good enough day to love

Though the blanket's rags and torn
The blanket's rags and torn
Turn my eyes to you there's a warmth there too
It's a good enough day to love

It's a good enough day to love
It's a good enough day to love
If not today, then when I say
It's a good enough day to love
