

A Perfect Ending

Royal Wood

Moonlight brings silhouette, silhouette fills...it thrills the room

Casting our shadows, our shadows...they seem to raise a tune

Here we go a melody rings

Holding you so the night it does bring

Moonlight and silhouette, silhouette fills, it thrills the room

Casting our shadows, our shadows, they seem to raise a tune

Here we go a melody rings

Holding you so the night it does bring

Arrows to targets, a phrase fit to sing

And in the words you'll find us a perfect ending

Here we go a melody rings

Holding you so the night it does bring

Arrows to targets, a phrase fit to sing

And in the words you'll find us a perfect ending
