

Do You Recall?

Royal Wood

I can't recall just what was said
I won't bring back the words that led to
The breaking down and trails of dead
I cannot recall

I think I had a sweater on
Maybe just a blanket to keep me
Warm when all the blood was gone
I cannot recall

Well I see no reason here I'm sleeping light
And I see no reason alone at night
Well I find no answers here my bed is cold
Well I find no answers here
Do you?

I can't recall what broke the thread
I won't bring back the pull that led to
The tearing down of all ahead
I cannot recall

Well I see no reason here the fear resides
And I see no reason here across the line
Well I find no answers here a tale untold
Well I find no answers here
Do you?

Well do you recall?
What made us fall?
Was there noise at all?
Oh do you recall?
