

Dog-eared Day

Royal Wood

I came away on that day drunk on you

May I conclude by the ways in your room
That were guilty and thus, are killers with our lust
And may I just say on this dog-eared day
That I found you alive and you passed it on inside

I came away on that day drunk on you

Will our demise be draped in disguise
To sniper us out, no signal, words without
But may I now say on this dog-eared day
That I found you alive and you colored me inside
You colored me...
