

Silently

Royal Wood

Surely it won't come to this
Surely there's a way
If on my knees I ask of thee
Silently

And holy love don't pass my way
Shine your glory brightly
Realign the stars to say
Silently
Silently
Silently

Well oh love
Holy love
Don't turn your back on me now
Well old love
Holy dove
Don't turn your back on me now

For no one has a heart for breaking
No one has a soul for taking
No one needs a love worth faking
Yes no one has a heart for breaking

Well oh love
Holy love
Don't turn your back on me now
Well old love
Holy dove
Don't turn your back on me now

For no one has a heart for breaking
No one has a soul for taking
No one needs a love worth faking
Yes no one has a heart for breaking

Silent
Silent

Silently
