

You Can't Go Back

Royal Wood

If you go I will fall
Into the deep
In you, well I have discovered
Everything I need to live
Forget the smoke and mirrors
You can't go back
If you leave I will drown
Take your key
Burn this town
There's no way now
In you, well I have uncovered
Everything I need to be
No conjuring the past
You can't go back
You were the island in the waves

My life will never be the same In you, well I've found a lover
Every bit I need to breathe
No hocus pocus here
You can't go back
