Hello, can I keep it up
(Don't trust the fucking shooter)
Hello
(Don't trust the fucking shooter)
Can I keep it up

Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right

My name is Kid Vishis and I provide for the smokers
For the soliders that only smoke that'll choke ya
Get that Indica in to ya it's gonna feel euphoric
Couple puffs of this, you'll feel you orbit

Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right

I'm from an era where you hear killing burials happen
You from an era where the only killing you seen
Was a little nigga named Terrio
Dancin', goofy shit, from your stereo blastin'
Wifing up groupies
Claiming a gang when you ain't bangin' a thing
Giving a thot a STD
It's the only time you clapping a ratchet
I roll a blunt and get the masses to match it
Imagine that
Used the world as an ashtray
And ashin' that after I rap

Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right

My son say "I got a girlfriend"
"Good job son!"
My daughter say "I got a boyfriend"
I load the shotgun
I'm not one for you young, dumb and full of cum niggas
I come with a drum, spittin' for my little girls innocence
With ignorance, that's how I'm living
I'm feeling it cool, and so is you
If you were abide by the rules
My children are unborn
This is a message to the future
Tell them to come for them before I shoot you

Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
Smoke some fucking dope and try to get your mind right
