

Day On My Pillow

RPWL

Day on my pillow
Gazing at the skyline
Happy that my soul can rest for a while

Not a single decision
To give you direction
'Cause that wouldn't be my style

Who made the colour of the rainbow
'Cause if I did, I would have done much better
There'd be no one suffering from anything
But I am only sitting at my window
Come again another day

Day on my pillow
Outside is a hurry
Wondering if they have peace in their mind

Heading to nowhere
Where no one is waiting
Hope that they'll seek what I have found

Who made the colour of the rainbow
Cause if I did, I would have done much better
There'd be no one
Suffering from anything
But I am only sitting at my window
