Won't give up
(I want you)
Won't give up (go away)
Til I'm high
Won't give up

But then the phone calls, on the hotline
You see the picture, every single sign
I got a secret
But can you keep it?

If tears had balance, what would life be?
You and me would be quiet likely
But you see this
I'm still amends for you

I feel,
Running in circles tryna find me
Blindfolded
With only the darkness you're unable to see

I'm not there
I'm not there
And to tell you the truth you should cut me loose,
I'm nowhere, nowhere

So I hide myself away
To another place
I hide from you
Between the sheets
So you don't see me
Like you
It's a masquerade
Play another phase
I won't give up, no
I've been in lots of stories, inside out so I...

Won't give up
(I want you)
Won't give up (go away)
Til I'm high
(I want you)
Won't give up (go away)

Tell another lie, commit another sin
This he says she says is wearing you thin and you know it
But you don't show it

To love you
Is something I try, it's so hard to do
Unfolded

Now you're so virable
I've gotten through,

I am scared
So so scared

And to tell you the truth this is nothing new
So I can't oh I can't

So I hide myself away
To another place
I hide from you
Between the sheets
So you don't see me
Like you
It's a masquerade
Play another phase
I won't give up, no
I've been in lots of stories, inside out so I...

Won't give up
(I want you)
Won't give up (go away)
Til I'm high
(I want you)
Won't give up (go away)
Won't give up
(I want you)
Won't give up (want)
Til I'm high
(I want you)
I've been in lots of stories, inside out so I...

Won't give up
(I want you)
Won't give up (go away)
Til I'm high
(I want you)
Won't give up (go away)
Won't give up
(I want you)
Won't give up (want)
Til I'm high
(I want you)
Won't give up (go away)

Hide myself away
To another place
I hide from you
Between the sheets
So you don't see me
Like you
