

Follow Me

Rufio

you're all i see these days but you're so far away this dream is never ending you're falling through my broken mind i've been caught up this time finally showing some passion these shattered eyes have broken on the thought of leaving you but i must go

inside my heart i'm aching spent time on others faking. you've stolen my heart and trapped my mind i'm giving in to you
i'm lost again
i see there is no difference were still alone

so come home with me tonight we'll lay till dark turns light can't fight this feeling in myself i'm lost in thoughts.
we'll wave... you're gone
silence evolves
follow me home

something strange in me i feel the same for you but there is no difference we're still alone
there is no need in crying there is no need in dying it makes no difference
were still alone

i'm lost in thoughts.
silence evolves

we'll wave and you're gone
