

Tears

Rufio

i sit and hear you sleep
i dont want to go
your there beside me
but your so far away
i talk to you
while your asleep
you cant hear a word
you can hear everything

tears are feelings we cant say tears mean that you care tears are mixed emotions
tears are more than tears

the pooring rain
from my eyes
means to much
to keep inside

i sit and watch you leave my life forever
i know youll be gone so long my last words are nothing and i tell you i care
and nothing more
i cant say how i feel
so i cry

its the light
behind the shadow
that sacred face
behind the mask
