

Under 18

Rufio

Nowhere to go
You're realizing
You're just the same as me
On and off, our episodes just Chase away our dreams

I'm under 18
and the bottle ain't me
(That's what you think now)
There's something, I'm scared
But the passion ain't there
(Is that what you think?)

So open up and don't shed no tears
You gave me strength through the years

Can't you hear my song?
Don't you feel my beat?
Remnants of your love
Playing thick on me

Did live all along
Living without ease
Though we've grown apart
Really not deceived
What friends means

Our time is short
And it's taking over
All the ways we think

Getting old, and our bodies
Feel it changing as we speak

I'm drowning the fear with the bottles of beer
(That's what you think now)
There's something, I'm scared
but the passion ain't there
(Is that what you think?)

So open up and don't shed no tears
You gave me strength through the years

Can't you hear my song?
Don't you feel my beat?
Remnants of your love
Playing thick on me

Did live all along
Living without ease
Though we've grown apart
Really not deceived
What friends means

So open up and don't shed no tears
You gave me strength through the years

Can't you hear my song?
Don't you feel my beat?
Remnants of your love
Playing thick on me

Did live all along
Living without ease
Though we've grown apart
Really not deceived
What friends means
