Growing old, and living for the moment, you're searching for something cannot find, the truth inside will leave you all, that you're living for thinking love is gone, its gone

why wait for you to come home why search for answers to nothing dont come back crying for help why wait for life to come

growing old, and living for the moment, you're searching for something cannot find, the truth inside will leave you all, that you're living for

thinking love is gone, its gone

why wait for you to come home why search for answers to nothing dont come back crying for help why wait for life to come think back, shocking, believe, its me (x4)

why wait for you to come home why search for answers to nothing dont come back crying for help why wait for life to come